

Chapter 1 : My school life

Hey

I don't mean to waste your time but I just wanted you to know that this is probably one of the most fun tasks I have had. Most tests are the standard MCQs and coding questions, and while that makes sense, it also gets mundane after a point.

This particular test gave me the flexibility to think and interpret the problem in any fashion I chose and for that, I thank you.

Let us now dive into my school life.

All the noteworthy points from that period of time are listed as follows:

1. I was a chatterbox
2. I absolutely love Art
3. State athletics champion
4. Hyperactive
5. Voracious reader
6. And irrelevant details like good at academics, class topper, etc

That is essentially me in a nutshell

Chapter 2 : My college life

My college life isn't that much different to be honest.

Not much has changed except that I am legally allowed to drink and vote and all those other fun things that people tell you about to distract you from the fact that you have entered adulthood and it is no piece of cake. This reminds me of a dialogue from the TV Show F.R.I.E.N.D.S when Monica says "Welcome to the real world. It sucks. You're gonna love it"

Back to my college life.

I love art more, if that's possible. I maintain an instagram page where I post pictures of some of my art and nail art (Yes, you read that right. I paint on my nails as well).

I am still an extremely chatty and hyperactive girl.

I still read A LOT. I even bought a kindle because I no longer have the space to store books.

All the other boring stuff like achievements and marks are listed on my resume.

But that is about it on the college front too.

I hope you enjoyed virtually getting to know me.

I would love to hear back from you. Especially if you had a little fun going through this little document.

I hope I get this job
